

LETTERS OF ENCOURAGEMENT—15

“Prayer, Life’s Limitless Reach”

2 Thessalonians 1:5-10

Introduction: _____

_____

Notice God’s proposition in Jeremiah 33:3 as we examine its words:

1. First, note the _____. “Call unto me . . .”
  - a. First, see its _____. “CALL . . .”
  - b. Secondly, note its _____. “ . . . UNTO ME”
2. Secondly, observe its _____ “ . . . and I will answer thee . . .”
3. Thirdly, consider its _____. “ . . . and I will shew thee . . .”
4. Fourthly, notice its _____. “ . . . great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.”

I. FIRST, NOTICE HIS CONCERN FOR THEIR _____ (2 Thessalonians 1:11a).

II. SECONDLY, CONSIDER HIS CARE FOR THEIR _____ (2 Thessalonians 1:11b).

III. THIRDLY, NOTE HIS CHALLENGE FOR THEIR _____ (1 Thessalonians 1:12).

CONCLUSION: As one grows in his/her prayer life, they will discover prayer takes on many forms:

- It includes _____ praise.
- It involves _____ known sins.
- It incorporates _____ help.
- It incites our _____ a need.
- It is inconsiderate without _____ thanks.
- It is incomplete without _____ for others.
