

THE SINS THAT SO EASILY BESET US--21

1 Corinthians 10:13

Introduction. _____

Why is sin so tragic?

- First, it _____ God (Psalm 51:4a; Romans 8:8).
- Secondly it _____ the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 4:30).
- Thirdly, it _____ your fellowship with the Lord (Psalm 66:18).

When temptations comes, a person responds in one of three ways:

1. First, the primary method of dealing with it is simply to _____!
2. Secondly, others struggle with temptation daily, spending all their time _____ it in their own strength.
3. Thirdly, there are those who overcome temptation through the _____ of the Holy Spirit.

So, look at the following division of the subject:

I. FIRST, LET US LOOK AT THE _____ OF TEMPTATION.

A. First, notice the _____ of the trap (Who is attracted to the traps?) (10:13a)

B. Secondly, consider the _____ of the traps (Where do they come from?) 10:13b).

1. First, they come from the _____.
2. Secondly, they come from the _____.
3. Thirdly, they come from the _____.

C. Thirdly, not the _____ of his traps (Where does he set his traps?)

1. First, he sets his traps in the _____.
2. Secondly he sets his traps in the _____.
3. Thirdly, he sets his traps in the _____.

I. SECONDLY, NOTICE HOW WE CAN _____ THE PROBLEM OF TEMPTATION (1 Corinthians 10:13c).

A. First, he tells us to be _____ or _____ from it (1 Corinthians 10:14).

B. Secondly, he makes available the _____ to _____ our faith.

C. Thirdly, he challenges us to _____ to the _____.

D. Fourthly, He seals us with the _____ to _____ frontal attacks for Satan.
